It might be Australia's youngest arts festival, but in 2009 – its first year as an annual event - an audience exceeding one million, 3560 artists and 600 eclectic performances brazenly carved out Brisbane Festival's place on the nation's cultural calendar. Brisbane Festival's mix of international and regional acts and home-grown talent combined with the idyllic river city location has played an integral role in growing and promoting Brisbane's cultural capital. This world-leading festival offers an outstanding example of how the arts can shape and nurture a city's identity and character, in addition to investment attraction.

In 2010, the Brisbane Festival welcomes a new artistic director, Noel Staunton. Noel joins the Brisbane Festival from his most recent position as Executive Director of the Sydney Dance Company and brings more than 30 years international experience working across the US, UK and Australia to deliver major stage productions across opera, theatre and dance.

Educated in the UK where he received Royal Academy of Dramatic Art (RADA) Diploma, Noel's professional experience includes positions with the Glyndebourne Festival Opera, English National Opera, and Opera Australia. Noel has also worked as Executive Director of Baz Lurhmann's company Baz Live working on the Moulin Rouge premieres in Cannes, New York and Sydney and the premiere of La Boheme on Broadway. Noel project managed the development of the Fox Studios entertainment precinct, a $15 million project which opened in Sydney in 1999.

BDA welcomes Noel Staunton to present his journey, his vision for the Brisbane Festival and the role this leading festival can play in shaping our new world city.

Cancellations must be received by 5.00pm two days prior to the seminar. Full payment will be required for all cancellations received after this time. Please advise of any medical dietary requirements.
